'TWAS A GREAT DAY.

Large Crowd Attended Old People's Day Saturday.

PROGRAM A GREAT SUCCESS.

Court Room Packed by Old People and Spectators at Meeting Under Auspices of Bradford County Historical Society.

"Old People's Day," held by the Bradford County Historical society at the court house Saturday, was a great occasion. There were more old people at the meeting than ever before and the audience simply filled the big court room to its capacity, with spectators in every aisle, sitting on the desks in front and even out of the doors into the rotunda. The day looked stormy in the morning and rain fell about noon but the afternoon was pleasant, though somewhat close in the court room.

Many of the old people were given rides in an automobile, George R. Hill taking out a number in his fine Mitchell touring car in the morning. It was intended to begin the meeting promptly at 1:30 o'clock but there was such a continuous steram of old people and spectators filing into the room that it was 2 o'clock before President E. J. Ayers could call the big meeting to order. Then Frank H. Ott of Ott & Hay, got the old people to look pleasant and keep still while he took a couple of photographs. Then the program was commenced.

I. McPherson, Esq., gave a brief but cordial address of welcome, addressing the old people as "aged and venerable ladies and gentlemen." He spoke of the wonderful progress which this greatest of countries had made within the memory of his hearers and of the appreciation which the young should have of those who had laid the foundations for this greatness. His remarks pleased the audience who applauded heartily.

Introduced Old People.

Then one of the most interesting features of the program was given, that of introduction of the old people by Secretary C. F. Heverly. He spoke of the great success of this meeting which exceeded in point of numbers and total of years any such meeting ever held in this county. During the past year two of those who were here at the last meeting and who sat on the 80 row have passed away, Major Cyrus Avery and Ezekiel D. Jones, both 85 years old. Of those in the seventies four have passed away, Mrs. Emily Felton of Towanda, aged 79, W. P. Horton of Towanda, aged 76, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bowman of Towanda, aged 72 and 73 years. Of those present this year, Mrs. Eliza Irvine of Liberty Corners and Lyman G. Hollon of Monroeton, were the oldest twins, being in their eighty-fifth year. Colonel J. A. Codding of Towanda, and Martin Codding of LeRaysville, were the oldest brothers, the first 86 years of age and the second 84.

J. A. Record, aged 90½ years, gave an old time solo on the violin, and he was followed by Miss Frederica Schmauch of Towanda, aged 12, who also gave a violin solo. Both were vigorously applauded. Frank Tracy, the Smithfield poet, gave an original poem, "The Pioneers," and recited it with good elocutionary accompaniment. This took well as did the hatcheling and spinning of flax by Mrs. Lucretia Dixon of Orwell and spinning by Mrs. Irvine of Homet's Ferry. Mrs. Irvine was the oldest lady present, being in her eighty-ninth year. She spun without the aid of glasses. Mrs. Amanda Taylor of Towanda gave an unusually interesting exhibition, that of old time hat making. Mrs. Elizabeth Heverly of Overton, mother of Secretary Heverly, sang a Dutch song, her daughter, Mrs. Arvilla Corner, joining in the chorus. This was finely received.

A. T. Lilley of LeRoy, gave an interesting illustration of the use of flint and steel in making sparks for fire, a method which is still used by some of the old settlers instead of matches. The spelling school, conducted by L. S. Chubbuck of Orwell, an old time teacher, captured the house. The scholars were Hon. C. S. Russell, J. A. Record, Mrs. Morgan Waters and her sister, Mrs. Rehbin, all of Towanda, and Mrs. Elizabeth Heverly of Overton. Mr. Record was the first to go down, Mrs. Waters also missed a word and so did Mr. Russell. When the contest was off, Mrs. Rehbin and Mrs. Heverly had missed no words.

H. S. Clark of Towanda, sang the old time song, "The Hunters of Kentucky," and then followed the hit of the afternoon, the clog dancing by Mrs. Mary Mahoney with fiddle accompaniment by A. Chapman. Mrs. Mahoney was entirely too swift for her accompanist, however. Her feet beat a great tattoo on the board platform brought in for her and she proved herself a star performer. She received a great ovation for her amusing work.

A Soldier Number.

Secretary Heverly then spoke of Reed Dunfee, the best known army drummer in this section. Mr. Dunfee served as drummer four years in the Civil war and was then in the army service for a total of 30 years. To the sound of the beats of his rumbling drum, a company of veterens under Captain G. W. Kilmer of Monroeton, marched into the court room. They were D. J. Sweet, Lewellyn Harris, J. D. Johnson and Dr. W. B. Kelley of Towanda, David Lattin and Eli Booth of Monroeton, Charles Scott of Liberty Corners, John A. Allen of Rome. They gave an interesting drill while Mr. Dunfee gave a sample of army taps and drumming. The drill squad also sang, "Marching Through Georgia," Captain Kilmer singing the verse and the "boys" and audience coming in on the chorus.

Secretary Heverly gave a short sketch of some of the notable soldiers present: Seth Vargason, the oldest one present, a member of the One Hundred and Forty-first regiment, was 44 when he enlisted and is now in his ninetieth year. Captain J. Andrew Wilt, less than 58 years at the present time, enlisted when but 14 years of age. Andrew and Reilly VanCise of Sheshequin, were among nine brothers, sons of Abram VanCise, who served in the Civil war. A. B. Carney of LeRoy, served over two years at a scout on General Grant's staff. Henry C. Arnold of Granville, made the irons in which Jefferson Davis was confined and also put them on the Confederates' leader. Douglas Wilson of Towanda, was born in slavery and lived in bondage until the war set him free. The Watkins Post drum corps gave some appreciated music during the day.

The presentation of awards to the oldest man and the oldest woman present, was made in a befitting manner by Judge Fanning who referred in sympathetic terms to the old people. The oldest man among the guests was Samuel Overpeck of Herrickville, who has passed his ninety-sixth year. He received a handsome gold headed cane. Mrs. John Irvine of Homet's Ferry, received a silver loving cup. Mr. Irvine is past 88 years of age. The members of the Historical society and the old people were then served refreshments in the society's rooms and a day thoroughly enjoyed by the old people and the spectators came to a close.

In one of the automobile trips, given by Mr. Hill, on the back seat were three persons whose ages totalled 279 years. They were Mr. Overpeck, aged 96, Mr. Armstrong, aged 95, and Mrs. Irvine, aged 88.

The committee in charge of the successful entertainment was as follows: Col. E. J. Ayers, C. F. Heverly, A. T. Lilley, Miss Ida K. Layton, Mrs. Elsie Means, Mrs. S. B. Eilenberger, Dr. E. D. Payne, O. A. Baldwin, H. W. McCraney, William T. Horton, Charles L. Stewart, George T. Ingham, Jno. A. Biles, Mrs. O. A. Baldwin, Mrs. R. A. Mercur, Mrs. J. A. Wilt, Mrs. J. F. Paterson, Mrs. E. J. Ayres, Mrs. M. E. Rosenfield, and Mrs. M. M. Spalding.

We declare for the principles of the Republican party as set forth in the

DRURY PLANT OPENED

Many Towanda People Inspected Latest Addition to Business.

A MODEL OF CONVENIENCE.

Machines all Driven by Individual Motors—All Kinds of Interior Wood Finish, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Etc., Will Be Made—The Company.

The new plant of the Drury Manufacturing company, just North of the borough line, was formally opened for business Friday afternoon at 3:40, when Miss Lulu Ayers, daughter of J. M. Ayers, president of the company, blew for the first time the whistle that it is expected will for years call an increasing force of skilled workmen to their labor. Fully 200 people responded to the invitation of the company to inspect the plant, and among them were many ladies. Everybody was made to feel at home, were shown all the features of this modern woodworking establishment and were served with fruit punch.

Well Equipped Plant.

On the two and one-half acres of land owned by the company is located the main plant, coal pockets, lumber sheds, barn and a tenant house, and in course of construction is an office building 18x40 feet, a warehouse 22x60 feet, and two sheds 100 feet long each. A new street named "Drury Avenue," has been opened from North William street to the plant.

The main building is 70x144 feet in size, running East and West the long way of the building. It has a thick cement floor all the way through and the sides are nearly all windows. The big sliding doors through which material is moved also have windows, so that when opened they match the windows in the walls and do not cut off any light.

The 20 machines are each fitted with individual electric motors operated by a current from an 80-horse power generator, which stands in the engine room located in a brick building at the Southeast corner of the main building. This does away with all shafting and belting.

A switch runs close to the East end of the mill and from it lumber is unloaded and shoved into the dry kiln which has a capacity of 40,000 feet. A 60-inch fan drives live-steam heated air through the kiln. The water used is taken from a 40-foot driven well in which 21 feet of water stands all the time.

Personnel of the Company.

The Drury Manufacturing company is composed of J. M. Ayers, president; W. H. Davis of Pittston, vice-president; C. R. Davis, manager; George Drury of Pittston, treasurer; B. M. Ayers, secretary. The company is capitalized at $20,000, the stock being all owned by the persons named above. The company recently acquired the interest of G. E. Searing in the Ayers & Searing lumber business and so has at its disposal a large tract of timber in this county.

As stated by S. H. Smith, Esq., who made a short address to the visitors, before the little ceremony of blowing the whistle, the concern is much more than a planing mill. Every sort of interior and exterior woodwork will be made. The company not only has the facilities for making this work, but it has the orders and the market. About 20 men will be employed at present. They will also handle coal and wood. At Pittston where a branch mill is operated, to which Manager Davis gives a portion of his time, the company's land is underlined by a coal mine. The fuel used in the Towanda plant comes from this mine on its own property.

MONROETON TOY FACTORY WILL MOVE TO TOWANDA.

Business Will Be Merged With That of the Hawes Factory.

The toy manufacturing business of the C. H. Northrop company at Monroeton, has been sold to and merged with the business of the new owners of the Hawes factory in Towanda. Charles H. Northrop, for many years an employe in the Hawes factory, will return to Towanda and take a good position under the new management.

The work under way at Monroeton will be brought to Towanda and finished. Walter Coon of the Northrop company, expects after a few weeks' vacation, to return to his old position at Halstead.

Pennsylvania's Oldest Justice.

L. C. Shepard of Antrim, is the oldest justice of the peace in Pennsylvania. He received his first commission in 1846 at Armenia, Bradford county, from Governor Francis Shunk. Since 1860 he has lived in Tioga county, 40 years of that time in Fall Brook and the remainder in Antrim. He is 92 years old and quite active.—Canton Sentinel.

PENNSYLVANIA BACKS DOWN ON MILEAGE BOOK EXCESS.

Expected That Protests of Traveling Public Will Be Heeded.

The Pennsylvania railroad, it is said on high authority, has decided to accede to the demands of the merchants and traveling men of the state for the abolishment of the $10 excess mileage book.

In response to the persitent agitation of the drummers of Pennsylvania, which has gone so far as to include a suit in the name of the Commonwealth and a campaign for legislation fixing the maximum rate of fare on steam railroads throughout Pennsylvania at two cents a mile, the company, it has been learned, intends to sell books good for 1,000 miles at $20 flat. Just when the new books will be issued has not yet been decided, as quite a number details must be arranged first and sufficient notice given teh traveling public.

An intimation that the Pennsylvania railroad would give in to the attacks on the $10 excess mileage book was given a short time ago by George W. Boyd, general passenger agent, when he said that the public had undergone a great change in recent years and that the policy of the railroad should change with it. "They should stay with the public," he said, and then declared that if it was shown to the Pennsylvania railroad that a $20 mileage book was what the public wanted this want would in all probability be met.

It is not known yet whether the action of the Pennsylvania road will affect the interchangeable mileage book in use over the other members of the Trunk Lines association now using it, but it is presumed that it will, for without the support of the Pennsylvania the traffic will not be sufficient to warrant the maintenance of the present book over those lines.

A piece of legislation that bids fair to be productive of immense good to the agricultural and horticultural interests of the country was passed last winter as an amendment to the Hatch bill of 1887. The funds thus made available for the state experiment work come at a very opportune time, when there is scarcely a station but has numerous practical experiments and tests which only require additional funds for their necessary execution.

While the life of the habitual mover is subject to many trials and troubles, he is at least freed from the anxiety and nuisance connected with the garret accumulation of half worn duds and shaky furniture. Like the running horse jockey, he aims to reduce his luggage to the lowest possible point.

Experiments are now being made in which a cement tile is being used in place of the ordinary draintile. While it is too early to speak authoritatively as to the durability of the cement product, the durability of cement when put to other uses would seem to indicate that it would prove entirely satisfactory in this particular. Where a supply of sand is available the cement tile can be produced at about one-fourth the cost of the ordinary tile. We would be pleased to report the experience which any of our readers may have had with this new kind of tiling.

Nature is an expert mathematician, showing wonderful ability in problems of chance. Ages ago she figured out that to bring a very few baby fry cod to maturity the mother cod would have to produce millions of eggs every season. In like manner she knew that to fetch a very few seeds of the maple or elm to full growth hundreds of thousands of the little flyers would have to be produced by the parent tree. The foresight we see displayed on all sides is marvelous, revealing an ever present, ever active and supreme intelligence.

The latest thing we have come across in the line of an offensive and defensive agricultural organization is a poultry vigilance association, and, strange enough, the need for this did not arise in Texas, Missouri or Kentucky, where chicken stealing is by some classes considered an art, but in a prosperous north Iowa community. As its name indicates, the purpose of the organization is to detect and punish chicken thieves, there being a standing reward of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any guilty party.

An Ohio county agricultural society last year gave prizes to persons raising the most and best garden stuff on a quarter of an acre. Here is what the fellow who got first prize grew on his patch: Ninety hills of sweet corn (between the hills of corn beans were grown), 12 hills of squash, 87 poles butter beans, 45 hills cucumbers, 27 tomato vines, 33 hills lima beans; next row contained beets, radishes, salsify and carrots, while in the next were parsley, lettuce, parsnips, celery, peas and string beans. Are there any of our readers who have done better than this?

A hopeful sign as indicative of an increased interest in practical forestry is to be found in the planting of large waste areas in the eastern states, particularly Pennsylvania, to forest trees —chestnut, red oak, hickory, basswood, white, red and Scotch pine and European larch. These lands, from which the virgin forests have been cut, belong largely to coal and railroad companies and are, as a rule, too hilly for the prosecution of extensive agricultural operations, but the scarcity of material for this has suggested the possibility of putting these heretofore waste and valueless lands to a practical and definite use. One company, desiring to take advantage of the assistance offered by the forestry bureau of the department of agriculture, has applied for an examination of a 36,000 acre tract with a view to ascertaining the best method of carrying on the work of reforesting.

THE CHIEF DANGER TO ORCHARDS.

Several years' experience in caring for a large orchard leads us to believe that there is no enemy of the apple tree that at all compares with the little white borer which works in the trunk at and just below the surface of the ground and whose presence is usually indicated by the sawdust-like excreta. The trees should be carefully examined at intervals during the summer and the borers dug out with a sharp knife. Where the borer is in its second year and cutting it out would necessitate too large a wound for the tree, a wire or pliant twig may be inserted and the pest killed in the tree. It is well in making the search to scrape the trunk carefully to an inch and a half below the surface of the ground, as the hole out of which the brown dust is discharged sometimes gets covered up, thereby concealing the presence of the borer. Keep the borer out of your orchard, and you will be practically assured that it will be thrifty and vigorous, with very few trees missing as the years go by.

LOCAL MILK AND MEAT INSPECTION.

With increased knowledge of bacteriology and a corresponding appreciation of the important part which germ life occupies in the existence and spread of different diseases, special emphasis is coming to be placed upon the importance and necessity of having food supplies, and particularly milk and meat products, free from contamination by disease germs. A thriving western city with which we are acquainted which has gradually evolved from a quiet rural hamlet to a bustling manufacturing center has lately decided on an inspection of all milk and meat which are to be sold in the corporation. The city council was led to take this action as a result of the discovery of a considerable number of tuberculosis cases and the discovery that some diseased animals were being killed for the local market, eight hogs which the home butcher was too busy to handle being killed and dressed in a local packing plant which was under government inspection, it being found that one of the eight hogs was badly diseased. The incident cited simply goes to show that the day is not far distant when a sentiment touching the danger to public health from contaminated sources of food supply will be aroused to the point where it will insist on the careful inspection of these two important food products—milk and meat. And there is no place this gospel needs preaching more than in the smaller cities all over the country whose dairies and slaughter houses have not as yet been placed under official inspection. While some states provide for the killing of all dairy animals found affected with tuberculosis, the matter is usually left as a matter of option to individual communities, while in none of them, so far as we know, is there provision for the general inspection of beef and pork and a scientific examination of dairy herds. The day is near at hand when there will be a county or district official whose duty it will be to look after the meat and milk inspection of every town in his territory.

COUNTY EXPERIMENT STATIONS.

A departure that gives promise of adding greatly to the value and effectiveness of the work now being done at the state experiment stations and one that has been much discussed of late has in view a carrying out of the practical work done at the places mentioned at the different county farms. Instead of being compelled to study state experiments at long range and having to digest bulletins which are more or less technical and whose data and findings are to some extent invalidated because of a variation in latitude, climate or soil condition, under the plan proposed these experiments are to be carried out under conditions that are known and which exist in each locality. The work to be done at the county stations gives promise of being especially valuable along the line of testing the value of different kinds of corn, grain and grasses that are at present grown, and later the introduction of new varieties, the conducting of feeding experiments and the putting to practical test of the many suggestions that grow out of the state work. The line of experiment proposed is to be carried on under the direction of the state authorities, who will receive the co-operation of the county board of supervisors. In the writer's home county work of this kind is to be undertaken, the board having set aside a certain sum for the prosecution of the work. This year the seed corn that has been planted in the county is to be given a thorough test and an oracular demonstration given of the advantage and disadvantage of planting good and poor seed. The plan outlined would seem to be one that had in it the possibility of almost limitless extension and development and one fraught with great results for the agricultural interests of the whole country.

The government will receive the cordial approval of agricultural and truck garden interests in its efforts to smash the fertilizer trust. While the owners of the rich black soils of the west may be indifferent to the operations of this organization, the question involved is one that comes very close home to the farmers of most of the eastern states.

ACRES OF SUNFLOWERS IN ILLINOIS.

There are a number of farmers in southern Illinois who have raised a few acres of sunflowers for two or three years past. Iowa will see a farm of this character for the first time this year. The land devoted to the culture of the sunflowers consists of five acres, the seed having been planted with a corn planter, the crop to be cultivated and tended the same as if it were corn. The proprietors have contracted their entire crop to a seed house for from $1.75 to $2 per hundredweight. The seed is used as stock food and is fed to parrots. A good oil is made from the seed, while the stalks may be used for kindling.

TOWANDA, PA., JUNE 28, 1906.

Norfolk Landmark: An Illinois girl broke her arm while trying to fasten her waist, which buttoned down the back. What the young woman needs is a good husband.

Bronson Alcott, the Concord philosopher, once made a strong and almost unanswerable plea for cannibalism. "If you are going to eat meat at all," argued the Yankee Plato, "why not eat the best?"

Daniel L. Hart, the playwright, who was recently elected city treasurer of Wilkes-Barre, has been appointed tax receiver for the city, county, poor and school taxes. This appointment will increase his salary $8,000 a year, making his total salary about $50,000 for three years.

Lancaster claims the honor of having the youngest qualified assistant druggist in the state. He is Charles Grove, 16 years of age. The boy is employed at D. E. Ranck's pharmacy and at the recent state examination he was one of the successful 33 applicants out of a class of 93.

It must have caused unholy glee in Packingtown when a hundred or more members of the National Editorial association were made very ill at Warsaw, Ind., by eating canned meats. This is a reasonable supposition in view of the publicity given the meat trust in the last few weeks.

That little things count up fast in railroad operations is proved by a statement issued recently by the Erie Railroad company, showing that the company expended $28,000 in coupling pins alone last year. Hundreds of them are lost each year through carelessness.

In New York, when a party gets thirsty, instead of giving them the harmless lemonade or a pitcher of beer, it is now the thing to go out and buy a pitcher of cocktails. This was what was done recently and as a result Mrs. Jessie Bouquet, a school teacher, is dead, the cocktail having contained wood alcohol or some other poisonous substance.

The estate of the late Daniel S. Lamont foots up in round numbers at five million dollars. Mr. Lamont was born of parents in moderate circumstances, and struck out for himself early. He had a faculty of always striking upon his feet. He was a very successful executive officer, always received a good salary, and was very successful in speculation.

State Treasurer Berry says that he had made a careful examination of all the public funds turned over to him by his predecessor, William L. Mathues, when he took office six weeks ago and was ready to receipt for them. Mr. Berry declined to give a receipt for these funds, which amounted to $13,500,000, until after he had examined them and also the sureties of the state depositories.

The business world is full of young men content in simply putting in their time somehow and drawing their salaries, making no effort whatever to increase their efficiency and thereby enhance their own as well as their employer's interest. To every young man I would say, seek at the start to cultivate the acquaintance of those only whose contact and influence will kindle high purposes, as I regard the building up a sterling character one of the fundamental principles of true success.—Marshall Field.

Joseph Carr of Frackville, has filed objections in the Dauphin county court to the nomination papers of John Coyne, Jr., candidate for state senator from the Thirtieth senatorial district. Mr. Carr contends that under the reapportionment of senatorial districts by the act of February 16, 1906, Schuylkill county is now in the Twenty-ninth district and that the papers are therefore invalid. Judge Kunkel fixed June 26 for a hearing. This proceeding will raise the question of the constitutionality of the new senatorial apportionment act.

The warm weather brings to some communities peculiar nuisances. Down in Norristown the police have caused it to be announced that the practice of courting in doorways of stores along the principal street of the town, or in dark nooks must be stopped or there will be trouble of the worst kind for the participants. The Norristown Register declares that "the guilty ones are for the most part children, although some who should have judgment indulge in the habit, and they are becoming a nuisance." One way to put a stop to the abomination complained of by the Register is to "turn on the light."

ALL EYES ON HARRISBURG.

The outcome of the Democratic State convention which mets today, Wednesday, at Harrisburg, and the action of the Lincoln party executive committee which met the evening of the preceding day in the same city, is awaited with great interest by voters of all parties. The contest for Governor in the Democratic convention will be between Arthur G. Dewalt of Lehigh county, the minority leader of the state senate, and Lewis Emery, Jr., of McKean county, the Lincoln party nominee. Dewalt is the choice of the followers of National Committeeman, James M. Guffy, of Pittsburg, who is demanding the nomination of a straight out Democrat. There is a bitter rivalry between the two factions and indications are that there will be an exciting time in the convention.

The Prohibition State executive committee was called to meet in Harrisburg on Tuesday evening also. It is said that the Prohibitionists are considering State Treasurer Berry's declination of the nomination for governor and a proposition from the Lincoln party to unite on a ticket with Lewis Emery, Jr., at its head. The Phohibitionists are eager to deal provided they can get one place on the combination ticket. Their leaders are disposed to insist on Homer L. Castle for lieutenant governor, auditor general or secretary of internal affairs. An effort will be made by the two executive committees to agree on a fusion ticket which will be acceptable to the Democratic convention.

The nomination of former Senator Emery by the Democrats will create a condition of much uncertainty as to the outcome in November. The Republican State ticket is of exceptional character. From top to bottom it embraces a range of incomparable strength. The only adverse criticism made since it was presented has been the method of its presentation. This criticism attaches singly and solely to the undiplomatic course of Senator Boise Penrose. What effect this will have upon the people remains to be seen. Republicans will find no excuse for their failure to support their ticket except the one given. Should Emery, however, receive the Democratic nomination, (he has already been nominated by the Lincoln party and will probably be made the nominee of the Prohibition party) he would be, as a choice of all these factions, a very formidable candidate for Governor.

Altogether the situation is most interesting and Harrisburg is just now the center of intense political interest and activity.

BEWARE THE TOY PISTOL.

Just previous to Fourth of July last year, State Health Commissioner, Samuel G. Dixon, through the public press of Pennsylvania, called the attention of the people to the great danger of lockjaw (tentanus) from wounds of toy pistols and other explosives, and he urged the necessity of immediate medical attendance in such cases. That the warning was widely heeded was shown by the great reduction in the number of tetanus cases following Fourth of July accidents. Indeed, there were reported only a few scattered cases throughout the state.

Health Commissioner Dixon again sends out a warning message in anticipation of the coming Fourth, saying: "The germ which produces tetanus grows best buried in the flesh away from the air, and this germ, which is found in earth, in the dust and in horse stables, and sometimes suspended in the air in windy localities, lodges easily in such a small, clean-cut wound as is made by the blank cartridge.

"What I wish to impress upon every one, especially mothers, is the very great seriousness of these wounds if they are not promptly and properly treated by those with full knowledge of the subject. Early treatment by a physician will often prevent the developement of tetanus. Therefore, a doctor should be called at once to treat a penetrating wound even if slight, such as powder or other explosives are apt to make. In case of prolonged delay in obtaining the services of a physician, a competant druggist or trained nurse might thoroughly wash the wound and apply hot antiseptics."

The safe and sane way to treat tetanus arising from blank cartridge wounds is for every parent to rigidly insist on his children leaving the deadly toy pistol severely alone.

The sentiment among the Democrats of Pennsylvania in favor of the nomination of Lewis Emery, Jr., by the Democratic state convention continues to assert itself. Colonel Duffey, the Democratic National committeeman, has taken note of it, and in a statement issued at his home in Pittsburg Tuesday, releases all of the Democrats who may feel under obligations to him from accepting his views in opposition to the indorsement of Emery. He continues to argue against the wisdom of naming Emery to head the fusion ticket, but indicates that he will do nothing to interefere with the desires of the Democrats of the state, as represented by their chosen delegates.—Philadelphia Record.

The news from Manila which tells of a band of 300 Pulijanes or Crazy Janes or something equally as wild, atacking United States troops and civilized natives, reminds the old inhabitants of the days when Apaches and other "wards of the nation" would go on a before-breakfast spree and butcher white settlers.

TICKET AND PLATFORM.

Everywhere the ticket nominated by the Republican county convention is received with satisfaction by the Republican voters of this county. It is true there is temporary disappointment among those who supported the candidates opposed to the successful nominees, but even these recognize the merit and thhe unusual strength of the ticket chosen and will give it loyal support.

Both of the nominees for the legislature are so well known throughout the county that it is almost a work of supererogation to speak of their qualifications for the office for which they have been named. Residents of Bradford county all their lives and actively engaged in work that has brought them in close touch with the people, they know the needs of the county and the state and it requires no promise on their part to assure their constituents that their interests will be carefully looked after.

Mr. Moscrip, who was a member of the lower house, will enter upon his duties with an experience which will add greatly to his efficiency and influence in that body. Added to this he has a practical knowledge of business methods, a wide acquaintance with public men and a familiarity with state affairs that will make him a capable and influential factor in legislative work.

Mr. Stevens, while lacking the legislative experience of his conferee on the ticket, is not, perhaps, less qualified to make a capable and efficient law-maker. Not only is he a skilled and successfud physician, but he is also, a gentleman of wide culture and practical business experience. He is, withal, a man much given to independent thinking and action, and he will bring to his new duties the same careful and intelligent investigation and the same conscientious and discriminating judgment that has characterized him throughout a highly honorable and distinguished career.

In its selection of jury commissioner, the convention was not less fortunate in its choice. A successful farmer, a gallant soldier and a man of much more than ordinary intelligence and business capacity, Charles Scott, the Republican nominee, measures high in all the qualifications required by the holder of this important office. He will bring to the discharge of its duties conscientious and intelligent performance.

The ticket, as a whole, is one of exceptional merit and strength and as such will receive the united and cordial support of the party. The platform is also exceptional in its merit. It is clear cut and unequivocal in its declarations and takes advanced grounds on all the leading political issues. It places the party in this county in the front line of reform and is an earnest, we believe, of the better methods and the better politics that in time not far off must prevail in Bradford county.

Say what you will about the whipping post being brutal and a relic of past ages, there are certain crimes, which can not be adequately punished only through the whipping post. One of these is wife beating, and another is the beating of a horse or dumb animal. The small fine or a short imprisonment of a two-legged beast or brute for maltreating a horse or in pounding and abusing a woman, is no punishment, the lash is the only thing which meets the requirements. The fellow who abuses an animal is a coward, a dirty, mean, miserable wretch, devoid of all shame or manhood.—Scranton Times.

Some one has well said: "One of the aggravations of life is to see a dollar's worth of man whipping a hundred dollars' worth of horse to make it pull twenty dollars' worth of stuff through a piece of road that could be made good for three or four dollars."

SCHOOLS AT PANAMA.

Twenty-three public schools, with an attendance of 1,128 pupils and with twenty-six teachers, have been established on the Canal Zone by the various municipalities under the direction of the Canal Zone government. Five of the six municipalities have adopted compulsory education laws and well attended schools are developing rapidly in a country which knew nothing of free schools before the establishment of the Canal Zone government. Governor Magoon has just submitted to the Isthmian Canal commission a report of the schools for May, which shows the enthusiasm with which the municipalities have taken up school work and are planning to extend it. In June two more schools are to be established and the enrollment will be brought up to 1,200. It is expected that the number will reach 1,500 in a short time. In commenting on the school system, Governor Magoon says: "I would particularly call attention to the fact that no expense whatever in connection with public education in the zone has fallen on the appropriation of funds for the construction of the canal, nor is it likely to, as this is being borne by the funds of the Canal Zone and the different municipalities, which will undoubtedly be able to carry the full cost of the maintenance as well as the actual cost of the organization."

"If Pennsylvania had lost as many hogs from hog colera as it has lost human beings from typhoid fever this year the people would be up in arms." This statement, made by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, commissioner of health of Pennsylvania, had been preceded by the announcement that typhoid is costing the state, in one way and another, $14,000,000 a year, to say nothing of the expense to families, which would add another $3,639,200.

EXCAVATING FOR ABUTMENTS AT EAST TOWANDA BEGUN.

Contracts Have Been Agreed to But Are Not Yet Signed.

Contractor Dolan Tuesday began work on the excavations for the abutments for the overhead crossing of the approach to the covered bridge on the line of the railroad embankment at East Towanda. This is taken to mean that the contractor has information from the Lehigh Valley people that the contract between the railroad company and Bradford county has been accepted. No information as to the terms of the contract will be given out until it has been returned signed. The Wysox township commissioners have also completed a contract with the railroad company, but the terms are withheld at present for the same reason.

One of the hoisting engines at this point was fired up Tuesday for the first time. All the machinery and material has been on the ground for some time.

Mrs. William Ackley of Towanda township was arrested by Constable Hollon Thursday on charges of false pretense preferred by J. Herbert Campbell of Burlington before Justice Orcutt. Mr. Campbell claims that Mrs. Ackley came to his place of business and on representation that she was Mrs. John Spencer living between Granville Center and West Burlington and a woman of property, secured from him 100 pounds of bran, 200 pounds of hominy, two sacks of meal and two grain bags. Another woman, whose name is unknown, accompanied the party. Mrs. Ackley denies being the woman wanted and says that she has never been at Mr. Campbell's. The hearing will be July 6.

New York Maids Won.

The game of base ball between the Cuban Giants and the New York Maids, exhibited to the gaze of the public at the East Side grounds on Thursday, resulted in a victory for the Maids. There were but a few who cared to spend a quarter to see the aggregation. The outskirts, however, were quite well filled with those who didn't object to crabbing for a time at the sight of a team of women who try to play ball for a living. Probably the satisfaction of seeing the game will last a long time.

POULTRY FARMING PAYS.

Troy Man Has Over Two Thousand White Leghorns.

The poultry yards of J. Willis Ballard in Troy borough, are taking on no inconsiderable proportions. One by one from a small beginning new buildings have been added until there are now something like 40 in the group to be seen by the visitor to Troy as he walks or rides into town from the railroad station. From a few hens the population of the yards has increased until it now numbers upwards of 2,000, all whitest of white leghorns. The youngsters come into life through the medium of improved incubators. After a day or two in patented brooders they go into brooding coops. As time rolls on the sexes are separated, the cockerels are slaughtered and the pullets contribute their quota toward breaking the late record of the American hen as a wealth producer.

Speaking of fowls and records, Mr. Ballard visited a duck ranch a few miles out of Harrisburg week before last which marketed last year 76,000 ducks—almost a thousand and a half a week the year around. They go to market at 10 weeks from the shell, dry picked, and weigh from four to six pounds each.—Troy Gazette Register.

PACKER HOSPITAL AT SAYRE IS NOW SELF SUPPORTING.

Annual Meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliaries Held This Week.

The annual meeting of the ladies' auxiliaries of the Robert Packer hospital was held Tuesday afternoon of last week. One of the most important developments was a statement made by Dr. C. H. Ott, surgeon in chief of the hospital that the institution is now self supporting.

Dr. Ott told the members of the different auxiliaries that with the state appropriation, the endowment received from Mrs. May Cummings and with the amount received from patients who are able to pay for treatment, the hospital has become self supporting so that no contributions from other sources are needed. He suggested that the auxiliaries devote the money raised by them to forming an endowment fund for the training school for nurses. He said that no provision had been made for such a fund from other sources and thought such a fund would be the best assistance that the auxiliaries could give the hospital. But the constitution and by-laws of the different auxiliaries do not provide for such a fund and a committee composed of Mrs. C. S. Maurice of Athens, Mrs. J. T. Sawyer of Waverly, and Mrs. Heister Piolett was appointed to consider the suggestion made by Dr. Ott.

There were about 60 ladies present at the meeting. In the absence of the president and the vice president, Mrs. Howard Elmer, who is the second vice president, presided at the meeting. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected. Mrs. Cummings of Mauch Chunk, president; Mrs. Louis Piolett of Wysox, first vice president; Mrs. Howard Elmer of Waverly, second vice presndent; Mrs. H. M. Scott of Waverly, recording secretary; Mrs. Bert Hayden of Sayre, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. H. F. Maynard of Athens, general treasurer. The central committee for the ensuing year will be the same as for the past year with the exception that Mrs. Delos McCurdy died during the past year and Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Shepard were chosen members of the committee.

Reports were received and read from the 12 auxiliaries, they being those of Sayre, Waverly, Athens, Towanda, Sheshequin and Ulster, Durrell, Burlington, South Hill, New Albany, Monroeton and Orwell. The auxiliaries of Sayre, Athens, Waverly and Towanda each raised $300 during the year and each auxiliary is entitled for that mount to a free bed in the hospital. The other auxiliaries raised from $21 to $100 besides large amounts of provisions, etc., for the hospital. In all about $2,000 was raised by the auxiliaries.

P., B. & E. Progress.

Contractor Thomas C. Whalen of Towanda, now has 130 men and 20 teams at work on the grading of the P., B. & E. railroad from Powell to Canton. Gangs of men are working at several points. Rails have been laid from the connection with the S. & N. Y. tracks to the abutments of the bridge over the Schrader creek. The bridge iron is expected at any time. On Saturday a quantity of tools were shipped to Powell for the Empire Construction company, who will erect the bridges.

Lackawanna Train Held Up.

It seems hardly credible that a Lackawanna freight train should be held up in western bandit style within a mile of Waverly, but such was the case Sunday night. In that vicinity is a large camp of tramps, headed it is said by "Turkey Red," one of the most "famous" hoboes on the road. A gang of the tramps set the air brakes on the train and then 20 of them quickly forced the door of a car and stole a quantity of provisions before the train crew could prevent.

Harrisburg Cathedral Opened.

Services were held Sunday for the first time in St. Patrick's Catholic cathedral, Harrisburg, which will be formally consecrated next October. The cathedral is on West State street, near the capitol, and is the finest church building in the Harrisburg diocese of the Catholic church.

COUNTY LINCOLN PARTY IS TO BE ORGANIZED.

Preliminary Meeting Held in Towanda Last Week.

A meeting of the Lincoln party adherents was held in the office of W. J. Young, Esq., in Towanda on Thursday of last week, after the regular Republican county convention. The meeting was of an informal nature but the political situation in the state and this county was quite thoroughly discussed. There is a Lincoln organization at Athens and besides men from that organization a number of Lincoln men from other parts of the county attended. Dr. O. H. Rockwell of Monroeton has been appointed by the state Lincoln party as the head in this county and J. L. Dyer of Athens is the acting county chairman.

The discussion resulted in a determination to organize a county committee in Bradford county and it is probable that this committee will later call a county convention. It is believed that the Lincoln party convention will endorse the county Republican nominees, Hon. George Moscrip of Towanda and Dr. C. L. Stevens of Athens, as their candidates for representatives and Charles Scott of Liberty Corners as jury commissioner.

The matter of congressman was discussed but no decision reached. The policy of the Lincoln party, however, in the state seems to be to support the Republican nominees for congress and where this is not deemed advisable to nominate a Lincoln Republican rather than to support a Democratic nominee. This matter will probably come up before the convention to be held. The men who met here Thursday are all supporters of Lewis Emery for governor and the Lincoln porty nominees for the balance of the state ticket.

ST. AGNES ALUMNI.

Enjoyable Reunion Was Held on Monday Evening at the School.

The St. Agnes Alumni association, with its new members, the class of '06, met in St. Agnes school Monday evening in a delightful reunion, and spent the evening in a manner befitting a reunion of old schoolmates. At 8 o'clock a company of 40, including the Sisters of the school and Rev. J. J. Coroner, sat down to the banquet. The banquet committee, Misses Mary Dalton and Mary Gorman, had fairly outdone themselves and the result was a dainty and appetizing spread. The room was beautifully decorated in blue and white, the school colors.

These officers of the Alumni association were elected: President, John Quigley; secretary, Mary Ronan; treasurer, Mrs. H. W. Swingle.

After the banquet dancing was enjoyed in the auditorium, Mrs. Wood furnishing the music.

The address at the closing session by Rev. Edwin F. Hallenbach of Binghamton, on "The Evangelistic Summons," was one of the most eloquent and scholarly addresses ever heard in Athens.

Bradford County Men in Mexico.

A party of stockholders in the San Pablo mines, which includes Dr. H. D. LaPlant, H. A. Kaufman and M. F. Barnum of Sayre, are having the time of their lives in Old Mexico. A recent letter from Dr. LaPlant to Charles H. Allen of Towanda, tells of their reception in the city of Guadalajara, province of Jalisco, the second city of Mexico. The governor of the province tenedered them a reception at which the public turned out en masse, and bands were instructed to play American music only. The party were made members of the American Club during their stay in the country. The Jalisco Times of June 15, publishes an account of the arrival of the party.

Is Ruhl in Towanda?

Samuel Ruhl, the demented young man from Tylersville, Clinton county, for whose detention a reward of $50 is offered by his father, is believed to be in this vicinity. A Towanda lady yesterday saw a man answering his description on Chestnut street. He wears black clothes, a black cloth cap with large visor, and when last seen at Canton on June 19, was barefooted. His father, John S. Ruhl, is still at Canton, conducting a search.

WYALUSING MAN ESCAPED BLOODY QUEEN ESTHER.

There has recently been some controversy in the Wilkes-Barre papers over the question whether or not any people were killed at what is known as "Queen Esther's Rock" at Wyoming. In reply to the statement that no one was butchered there, Charles E. Jones of Wilkes-Barre, gives the following facts, which were published in the Wilkes-Barre Record:

Miner in his history of Wyoming, published in 1845, gives the names of two persons who escaped the fatal ring around Queen Esther's Rock, namely, Lelbens Hammond and Joseph Elliot. Elliot, who resided at Wyalusing in June, 1845, nearly 89 years old, was seen by Miner and gave the following account of the affair: "At the time of the invasion he marched out to battle in Capt. Bidlack's company. Pressed by a vast superiority of numbers, his commander slain, he retreated with the rest and was made prisoner. It was his fate to be dragged to the fatal ring at Bloody Rock, where the savages, intoxicated with victory and excited by passion to wildest fury, glutted their thirst for blood. A circle was formed, two or three Indians holding or guarding each prisoner. Queen Esther raged like a demon. He saw six or seven men murdered. A young man, Thomas Fuller, sprang to escape, shook off his guards, but was instantly overtaken and tomahawked. The confusion, the savage yells, the moans of his dying friends, the streams of blood, the scattered brains, for a moment stupefied him. With a ray of returning reason, he saw death almost in a moment certain, and he could but die. With the might of combined courage and despair, he threw off the Indians who held him and at a spring leaped down the bank, turned off to the right a second and at a bound cleared a fence and fled to the river, several of the enemy in full pursuit. He had passed Monockasy Island and entered the southern branch of the stream when a bullet struck him in the left shoulder, inflicting a grievous wound.

Being compelled to steady his wounded arm, dangling by his side, with his right hand, he does not know how he swam the portion of the river too deep to ford, but found himself on the bank and took shelter behind a tree a moment to recover his breath. His wound bled so profusely that his clothes became a burden they were so saturated, but he at length arrived at the Wilkes-Barre fort and Dr. Smith afforded his prompt and skillful aid." Among those whom he could remember to have been butchered were Jeremiah Ross, Samuel and oJseph Crooker, Stephen Bidlack and Peter Wheeler.

Israel Skinner, M.D., author of "The Revolutionary War in Rhyme," had the pleasure of hearing the account of the veteran's escape from his own lips.

Extra Examinations.

In addition to those examinations advertised two extra examinations for teachers' certificates will be held at the High school in Towanda, July 13 and 14, and August 10 and 11. The morning sessions of these examinations will be given at 8 o'clock. H. S. Putnam, County Superintendent.

Presbyterian Church Services.

Rev. J. S. Stewart is expected home from his vacation on Thursday. Midweek services will be held in the church parlors at the usual hour. Services will be resumed Sunday morning in the chapel, in case the repairs on the church are not completed.

S. & N. Y. FREIGHT OFFICE MOVED.

New Quarters at Washington Street Now in Use—Switch Spiked.

The Susquehanna & New York Railroad company on Monday unloaded a car of freight at their new Washington street station, and Wednesday moved their freight offices to the new location, where they are ready for business.

To prevent the S. & N. Y. company from using the switch in front of the new station Lehigh Valley men on Monday spiked it, thereby not only preventing the S. & N. Y. but themselves from using it. It has been for some time blocked with three cars. The S. & N. Y. company claims the right to use this switch, and the action on the part of the Lehigh Valley company compels them to occupy the main track when loading and unloading freight.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES.

Something About the Men Republicans Will Vote for This Fall.

The Reporter-Journal takes pleasure in presenting the portraits and sketches of the Republican candidates for the legislature and jury commissioner, Hon. George Moscrip, Dr. C. L. Stevens and Charles Scott:

Hon. George Moscrip is a native of Scotland, but was brought to this country when an infant by his parents, who settled in Herrick township, this county. He was educated in the common schools except for four months in the old LeRaysville Academy. In his seventeenth year he began teaching school and every Winter until 1870 found him engaged in that work. "Between times" he worked at farming, and in fact has followed farming all his life; he owns a fine property in West Burlington. Mr. Moscrip early became affiliated with the grange, being a charter member of Wappasening Grange, No. 188, and served as Master; he is now a member of Union Grange at West Burlington. He served as township auditor in Herrick Windnam and Burlington townships.

In 1874 he was elected a member of the legislature and served during the sessions of 1875-76 on the committees on elections, industrial statistics and Centennial affairs. His record at Harrisburg speaks for itself.

In 1877 Mr. Moscrip took up the work by which he is best known in the state, the selling of school text books. In that year he secured a position with Ivison, Blakeman, Taylor & Co., and has been employed by that firm and its successors up to this time. All these years up to 1893 he resided on and conducted his farm in Burlington.

At the recent primaries he received every vote cast in the Third ward of Towanda, where he has resided for 13 years.

Dr. C. L. Stevens of Athens, was born at Stevensville, March 10, 1851, the son of Cyrus and Lydia Lacey Stevens. His grandfather, Colonel Aden Stevens, was commissioned Sept. 9, 1805, in the 129th Pennsylvania Militia, and was one of the pioneers of the Wyalusing valley. Dr. Stevens attended the country schools and then taught in them and a select school at Camptown, and was for one year principal of the East Smithfield school. In 1872 he entered Lafayette College, from which he was graduated four years later with the degree of A. C. In 1880 he received the degree of A. M. During 1876-78 he taught natural science in Parsons College, Fairfield, Ia., and registered as a medical student in the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Keoukuk, Ia.

He graduated with honors in 1880, and spent that Summer in the hospitals of New York, London and Paris, and in the same year was made professor of surgery and obstetrics in the medical department of Central Turkey College at Aintab, Turkey, where he remained three years. In 1882 he visited Egypt during the cholera epidemic, and during 1884-85 was medical superintendent of the New York Post-Graduate Medical school. Since 1885 he has been in general practice at Athens.

Dr. Stevens has a wide reputation in medicine and is a member of the American Medical association, the Medical Society of Pennsylvania, of which he has been secretary since 1897, and for two years has been editor and publisher of the Pennsylvania Medical Journal. He has always taken an active interest in the public affairs of his home town, is a member of the Masonic fraternity, the I. O. O. F. and the Royal Arcanum, an elder and for 18 years clerk of the session of the Athens Presbyterian church. His popularity among Republicans in the county is attested by his having received the largest vote of any candidate at the recent primaries.

Charles Scott.

Charles Scott, Republican candidate for jury commissioner, was born in Monroe township, this county, in January, 1839, and has resided at Liberty Corners all his life. Educated in the common schools, in August, 1862, he enlisted in Company C, of the famous 141st regiment. For a year he was color sergeant and carried the flag; then he was promoted to first sergeant and then to first lieutenant of his company. He was wounded at Petersburg and again at Gettysburg. He received his discharge in January, 1865. He is a member of Watkins Post, G. A. R.

Mr. Scott has served as town clerk, assessor, school director and road commissioner of his township, and for over 40 years has been the secretary and treasurer of the Liberty Corners Cemetery association. A record of which any man may be proud is the fact that Mr. Scott has been for 48 years a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at Liberty Corners, and for over 40 years recording steward of the society.

He will not come to the office of jury commissioner without experience, having been appointed by Judge Fanning on Dec. 24, 1904, as jury commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Harvey Cummings.

F. D. Bixby,
George E. Foster,

Painting is practical work. Skill wins. It's the same with paint making.

You know 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes enough paint for a moderate sized house—the best paint money can buy—because the L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes the L. & M. paint wear like iron.

Buy L. & M. and don't $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil, as you do in ready-for-use paint, but buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents, and mix with the L. & M.

HARMONY PREVAILED,

mention of Roosevelt's name brought cheers.

Nominees Declared.

The committee on tabulation of returns reported through its chairman, Mr. Bird, that a total vote of 3,892 was cast. For the legislature L. T. Hoyt received 1,003, E. M. Tuton 875, George Moscrip 2,013, C. L. Stevns 2,516, G. M. Coons 695. Chairman Ingham thereupon declared Mesesrs. Moscrip and Stevens the nominees of the party, each having a majority of the total vote cast.

For jury commissioner Charles Scott had 1,026, James Mustart 526, Freeman Dixon 374, Addison Gillette 630, Samuel A. Blish 1,117. No one having a majority of the vote the roll call of delegates was proceeded with. At this point Hon. Louis Piollet of Wysox, in behalf of Mr. Dixon and Mr. Gillette, withdrew their names. At the close of the first call of delegaes D. J. Sweet in behalf of Mr. Mustart, withdrew his name.

The final call of the roll of delegates resulted in a vote of 84½ for Charles Scott and 82 for S. A. Blish. Chairman Ingham thereupon declared the nomination of Mr. Scott.

On motion of Hon. E. M. Tuton, the chair was instructed to appoint a committee of five to prepare a revision of the party rules for use under the new primary law which becomes effective in November next.

We recognize Theodore Roosevelt as the leader of the Republican party, and the able, effective and fearless champion of the rights of the people against the aggressions of monopoly. We pledge him our confidence and support and the aid of our representative in congress in all necessary and proper ways in the securing of such national legislation as shall make effective the policies for which he stands and shall secure to every man a "square deal."

We affirm our faith in the doctrine of protection to American industries, but with such changes in tariff rates from time to time as changing conditions may show to be wise and necessary, and with such modifications toward our insular possessions as our connection with them and justice may demand.

We believe that railroads and other public utility corporations should be subject to taxation in equal proportion with real estate and individual interests. That with the franchises they enjoy and the large amount of property they possess there is no just reason why they should not bear their share of the expenses of the local government which protects them in the possession and enjoyment of their property.

We believe that railroads should not be allowed to engage in the mining of coal or other minerals, either directly or indirectly, and that if the present laws and constitution of this state are not sufficient to prevent their so doing that such amendments should be made thereto as will put an end to the abuses growing out of such conditions.

We believe that the large increase in travel makes a maximum rate of two cents per mile a sufficient compensation for passenger rates upon railroads.

We believe that railroads or railways operated by power other than steam should have the same rights of eminent domain and of carrying both passengers and property as steam roads, subject to such necessary regulations as may be made by the municipal authorities where they occupy public highways.

We believe that the time has arrived when United States Senators should be elected by a popular vote of the people.

We believe it to be unwise, poor policy, and bad taste for representatives in the legislature to accept passes from the railroads or any other gratuity in lieu thereof, and we have full confidence that those elected by us will not do so, but will use their best endeavors to secure the adoption of such policies and the enactment of such legislation as shall emancipate forever this grand old Commonwealth from the bondage of the railroad and Standard Oil companies so that unjust discriminations shall cease, each individual may enjoy the fruits of his energies, and under the wise and beneficent policies of our party prosperity prevail.

During the brief wait for the return of the tabulation committee, I. McPherson, Esq., of Towanda, was called for. He made an impromptu address that was full of happy expression and earnest congratulation for Republicans on the spirit of harmony prevailing in the convention. He asked the co-operation of every Republican in support of the party principles and the president, and this district's nominee for congress. Every

NEW YORK FASHIONS

Mother is always glad of new ideas in frocks for her young offspring, and the one sketched here is excellent in style and practicability. The frock is in one piece and thus easily put off and on. It has the further advantage of closing on the shoulders, being slipped on over the head and buttoned along shoulder pieces which resemble epaulets and give a broadening effect. A pretty stitched cuff completes the sleeve and re-enforces a place which is subject to much wear. The frock is belted in long waisted manner, and leather is the best material for the belt. A crash would serve as a resister of wear and soil, and with a belt and shoulder buttons of red the frock would be quite fetching. For the medium size two yards of thirty-six inch material are needed. No. 4770, sizes, 2 to 6 years.

DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING

Send 10 cents to this office, give number of this pattern, No. 4770, and state size desired. It will then be sent to you by mail postpaid. Be sure to write plainly and always give full address. Several days must be allowed for delivery of pattern.

Patterns For a Gown For an Elderly Lady Designed by Martha Dean—Nos. 6453 and 6454

In their enthusiasms for the films and furbelows of the young woman's wardrobe the fashion artists have not forgotten the older woman, and some very attractive new models in gowns for her are to be seen. The illustration shows a beautiful gown of gray crepe de chine, with a narrow braid adorning the skirt. The waist is plain in back, with a soft fullness in front regulated by shirrs upon the shoulder. Narrow vestees of dark gray broadcloth show French knots of black along the edges, while a narrow soutache also serves as trimming. The inner vest may be of soft silk or embroidered chiffon. The soft grays and lavenders are very fashionable and would render this gown very smart. The skirt is one of the new seven gore models with a graceful flare about the bottom. For the medium size the pattern calls for six yards of fifty inch material. Two patterns—No. 6453, sizes, 32 to 44 inches bust measure; No. 6454, sizes, 20 to 32 inches waist measure.

DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING

Send 20 cents to this office, give numbers of these patterns, Nos. 6453 and 6454, and state sizes desired. They will then be sent to you by mail postpaid. Or either of the patterns will be sent for 10 cents. Be sure to write plainly and always give full address. Several days must be allowed for delivery of pattern.

The manufacture of cement blocks for building F. T. Mynard's cold storage plant is in full operation on the grounds near the foundation of the building. You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

WEDDED AT CANTON.

Wilbur H. Parsons of Troy, and Miss Daisy Parsons of Canton.

A wedding of much interest in the Western part of the county was solemnized on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Parsons in Canton, when their only daughter, Miss Daisy Parsons, was united in marriage to Wilbur H. Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Parsons of Troy.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. D. Crockett, former pastor of the Canton Presbyterian church. It was performed in the West end of the library of the spacious home under festoons and hangings of laurel and ground pine and was most beautiful.

The bride was attended by Miss Edna Innes of Canton, and Frederick Van Dyne of Troy, acted in the capacity of best man, and Robert Van Syckel, Jr., of Troy, was the little ring bearer. The bride was attired in a beautiful robe of Duchess lace and silk and carried white roses, while the maid of honor wore a dainty dress of pink silk mull and carried pink roses.

Miss Parsons is one of Canton's most popular and beautiful young ladies and the groom is one of the rising young business men of Troy and their many friends extend their congratulations.

The wedding presents were very beautiful and numerous, among which was a gift of $500 from the bride's father, a diamond ring from her grandmother, Mrs. F. G. Van Syckle, $100 in gold from the groom's father, cut glass, silver and many articles of furniture and bric-a-brac.

That Halo About the Sun.

The large circle around the sun, which has appeared twice recently in this locality and aroused much apprehension among superstititious people, is explained by a student of astronomy as follows:

The ring around the sun is known as a solar halo and is caused by the reflection and refraction of ice high up in the air floating in the thin whitish clouds that can be noticed at the same time. Those very high clouds, even in Summer time, are composed of particles of ice and when there are many of them of about the same size and shape and flat together between the observer and the sun, the light is reflected and refracted from them evenly in the form of a circle with the sun at the center. Sometimes there are several circles or parts of the circles may be incomplete or in the form of "sun dogs."

The government reports show that the halos always appear at one place or another in this latitude at this time of the year. It means nothing in particular, unless it be the approach of a storm.

Miss Kirby Complimented.

"The Musical Leader and Concert Goer" gives the following complimentary notice of the work of Miss Mary Frances Kirby of Towanda, in a concert engagement in New York city on May 23: "Miss Mary Frances Kirby was heard for the only time this season and was as always enjoyable. Her voice—a splendid coloratura soprano—has grown fuller and she made a fine impression in her airia and three extra numbers, one of them being Mr. Miller's song, 'My King of Dreams,' which was beautifully sung."

Lindley—Ford.

Ford of Norwich, N. Y., by the Rev. Mr. Wenrick, pastor of the Presbyterian church. None but the immediate relatives and a few friends were present. After a trip to New York city and other places of interest, Mr. and Mrs. Ford will reside in Norwich, N. Y.

Shoemaker Woke 'Em Up.

Four Sayre boys who had an outline in the river at Tioga Point, were awakened quite a time after daylight Thursday morning by Deputy Game Warden Shoemaker to pay a fine of $25 for having an outline in the water after sunrise. Their excuse, that they had "run the outline" until about 4 a. m. and then overslept, failed to work. Now there is talk of prosecuting the warden for extortion and malfeasance.

Kane—Cain.

Miss Martha Cain of Sayre, and Simon S. Kane of South Waverly, were married in the Church of the Epiphany at Sayre, on Tuesday morning. A nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Hussie of Ashley, assited by four other priests. Miss Josephine Cain, the bride's sister, and John Kane, the groom's brother, were the attendants. The bride formerly lived in Ridgebury.

Stewart, Mrs. Schmauch and Miss Frederica Schmauch, Towanda.

Food Frauds.

City, state and national investigations into the character of various food products and the representations under which they are sold have conclusively demonstrated that the markets are flooded with impure, unclean and fraudulent goods, in the purchase of some of which the consumer is doubly swindled by the widesperad use of short-weight packages. On the other hand, honesty has not altogether gone out of fashion in food merchandising, and a square deal is still obtainable at the right shops. Consumers know this, and they are learning to discriminate in the purchase of supplies for their tables. They lean more than ever upon the advertising columns of the newspapers for advice and guidance. Grocers and other dealers in foods who sell clean and wholesome wares ought to make that fact known now. New custom is waiting for them.—Philadelphia Press.

Starved in a Land of Plenty.

For nine weeks and three days she could take neither food nor water, on account of paralysis of the throat.

Mr. Prince has many old friends in this county, whom he visited 20 years ago, the last time he was here. He is stopping with his brother-in-law, C. J. Eastabrooks, at Allis Hollow.

T. H. Ross has been appointed by the court constable of Burlington borough, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of G. C. Gerould from the borough. Jesse E. Allen has been appointed constable in Wysox township to fill the vacancy caused by the death of B. I. Ridgeway.

Finishing the Survey.

A party of surveyors under Engineer McCausland started for LeRaysville Thursday, in a four-horse rig, to finish the survey from Towanda to Binghamton for the P. B. & E. railroad. Among the Canton members of the party were Fred Beck and Lynn Baldwin.—Canton Sentinel.

Lehigh Leads in Cement.

According to the American Manufacturer, more cement is made in Lehigh county, this state, than in any other place in the world. The output of Lehigh last year was 18,000,000 barrels, the whole product of the United States being only 30,000,000 barrels.

Exceeds the Average.

So far during the month of June 4½ inches of rain have fallen, according to the record of Voluntary Observer Bull at East Towanda. This is ¾ of an inch above the average rainfall for June in this locality.

Breaks no Hearts, Excuses no Crimes.

Dr. David Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is not a disguised enemy of the human race; where it cannot help, it does not harm. It is composed of vegetable ingredients and does not heat or inflame the blood, but cools and purifies it. In all cases of Kidney troubles, Liver complaints, Constipation of the Bowels, and the delicate derangements which afflict women, the action of Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is beyond praise. Thousands of grateful people voluntarily testify to this, in letters to Dr. Kennedy; and with a warmth and fullness of words which mere business certificates never possess. It makes no drunkards—excuses no crimes—breaks no hearts. In its coming there is hope, and in its wings there is healing. We challenge a trial and are confident of the result. Your druggist has it. ONE DOLLAR a Bottle. Bear in mind the name and address: Dr. David KENNEDY, Rondout, New York.

KNAPP—RUTAN.

Pretty Chruch Wedding Celebrated at Coreyland Last Week.

The Columbia and Wells Baptist church was prettily decorated with ferns and laurel Wednesday evening of last week, when in response to about 100 invitations a large company assembled to witness the marriage of Lucy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rutan to George Parcell Knapp. The bridal party entered the church promptly at 8:30 to the strains of the wedding march by George Mosher of Sylvanta. Two little girls, Pearl Brown and Verla Varney, led the way, scattering flowers as they proceeded down the aisle to the altar where the Rev. A. G. Cameron awaited the contracting parties and impressively performed the ceremony.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white Landsdowne and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. She entered on the arm of her brother, Lon Rutan of Troy. Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins were best man and matron of honor respectively; the latter carried white roses. The bridesmaids were: Misses Margaret and Katherine Smith, Troy; Miss Grace West, Columbia X Roads, and Miss Bertha Knapp, sister of the groom, Coreyland. Acting as ushers were Messrs. Harry Gernert, Ross W. Soper, L. Brown and Andrew J. Strong.

He has been an invalid for many years and is totally disabled. He appreciated very much the action of the drum corps in remembering him.

THE McCALL'S FERRY DAM.

Work Being Suspended and Company May Ask Charter Rights.

According to the York Gazette, the McCall's Ferry Power company, engaged in constructing a dam across the lower Susquehanna, is laying off its hands and will cease work for the present. A large force of men has been engaged and a great deal of work has been done. The coffer damming has been built from the Lancaster county side of the river, half way across to Frey's Island, while the work on the York county side was under construction. Some work on the real dam had been started on the Lancaster county side and it was being built from both ends of the coffer damming.

According to the Gazette, the company will apply to the next legislature for the right to construct the dam. The Gazette's informant admitted that the officials of the company were disinclined to go on with the work at present, and said that work would practically be discontinued until it could be learned whether the legislature would allow the corporation to close up the public waterway.

Whatever the intentions of the projectors, there is no doubt that the force of men engaged on the work has been largely reduced.

STEAM SHOVEL MAN HURT.

The first serious accident on the new railroad construction at East Towanda happened Tuesday afternoon, when Thomas Snyder of Pittston, employed on the steam shovel, had his left forearm crushed and sustained other severe bruises. While in operation the big iron sheave at the top of the machine through which the cable passes broke and a piece of the iron weighing about 100 pounds together with the sheave wheels came tumbling down about Snyder's head.

The heaviest piece struck him on the shoulder and left forearm. He was taken to the East Side Hotel and Dr. Johnson dressed his wounds. The shovel was put out of commission by the break, but will probably be repaired today.

Rapid-Fire Publicity.

As an advertising medium the daily newspaper bears about the same relation to monthly publications that the modern automatic revolver bears to the muzzle-loading horse-pistol of our forefathers. A dexterous man might fire a horse-pistol once in every two minutes or so. The automatic revolver spits death every half-second. Similiarly, while the advertiser is loading up his monthly with one installment of copy he might fire off thirty telling charges through the newspaper. For rapid and effective work the daily—the influential daily—has the plodding periodical beaten before the race begins.
